Lectionary 33, Year C

Prelude

Announcement

Introduction

The end is near. There is no doubt about it. The warnings are dire. The tone of today's texts is ominous. But the baptized know how to live in the meantime. The baptized are strengthened for the living of these days in word and sacrament. The baptized rally around the invitation of the apostle: "Do not be weary in doing what is right."

Confession and Forgiveness

Most merciful God,

we confess that we have sinned against you and our neighbors. We have ignored voices that call for your justice. We have neglected actions that witness to your righteousness. We have spoken and acted in ways that disrupt your beloved community. We truly repent of things we have done and left undone. For the sake of Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Restore our troubled spirits, so that we may live in newness, follow the way of the Spirit, and build up the body of Christ. Amen.

The Five Ts of Stewardship- Teamwork, Time, Talent, Treasure, and Thankfulness
By now you should have received your stewardship letter and pledge card. Today, Sunday November 13th is our stewardship commitment Sunday. Please return your pledge cards by today. You can place it in the offering plate or drop it by the office.

As you prayerfully consider your response of time, talent, and treasure for the upcoming year of 2023 please consider whether or not you might be able to increase your response even a little bit. You have probably heard the saying it takes a whole village to raise a child that means everyone has a part in raising a child Even so it takes a whole congregation to be the church and in other words every member matters, every member counts, and whatever contribution you can make of time, talent, or treasure, matters.

And when pulled together every member's contribution enables and empowers us in our mission of proclaiming and spreading the good news of God's love and mercy given to us through our savior Jesus Christ. Thank you for what you are giving and have given this year and thank you for what you will be giving in 2023. Every amount of giving matters in support of Immanuel's mission. Your stewardship committee.

The Men's Discussion Group will resume Thursdays at 7:30 a.m. in the Koinonia Room. New Participants are most welcome. Coffee and rolls are available.
